A Moment In The Moonlight (Secrets Of Savannah Book 2)

Synopsis

Secrets of Savannah: Six best friends who have known each other their entire lives. Once as thick as thieves, the friendships among the girls have been splintered by life events, secrets and deceptions. Now, brought together again by an inheritance of an historic Bed & Breakfast on Tybee Island, the women must set aside their differences in order to restore their beloved Savannah House. As each woman finds her special talent and develops it through the renovation of the inn, they also find romance—each of them with an unforgettable hero. The sweetheart: Olivia Renault is the only daughter of a Savannah businessman, Jack Renault. Having recently inherited the once famous resort, Savannah House, along with her dearest friends, Olivia is excited about the future enterprise and all of the possibilities. Olivia's heart is energized when Hunter Rawlings, an old flame, returns to town for the wedding of her best friend, Callie Duvall. Having truly never gotten over Hunter, Olivia finds herself falling for him all over again. But can she really trust her heart with the man who once broke it? The rebel-millionaire: Once the bad boy of Savannah, Hunter Rawlings left his hometown a decade ago and transformed himself into a successful, wealthy businessman. Hunter returns to Savannah for the wedding of his childhood friends, Callie Duvall and Jax Holden. Once back in Savannah, Hunter comes face to face with the one who got away—Olivia Renault. As teenagers, Hunter and Olivia were involved in a secret romance that ended abruptly when Hunter roared out of Savannah on a motorcycle and toward a new life away from his hometown. As Hunter's feelings for Olivia return with a vengeance, he grapples with a huge secret he's harboring—one that might rip Olivia out of his arms forever.

Customer Reviews

Belle Calhoun is one of my favorite authors. This story is great. I liked the backstory between Olivia and Hunter and learning about Hunter's family. There are elements of forgiveness in realizing that revenge is never good and doesn't bring the satisfaction it entices. I can't wait to read each story in this series.

Another can't put down novel. This novel had so much action in it that it was hard to put down. I wanted to keep reading so I could find out what was waiting around the corner. It is never good to try to get even with people because it will come back to you, in which in this novel it happened more than once. You should always trust in God & your family. Keeping secrets from your family is wrong, being honest with them could bring you closer. Revenge is never the answer.

I've found I enjoy several romance stories but the ones like this that wallow in goo endlessly make me throw up. If you like slimy constant exchange of body fluids you will love this. I just couldn't skim through to get the story safely.

Was not what I expected. Is the reason for a 3. Selection did have a great story line. Had I been looking for a chaste book it would have been a great choice!

Only problem had with it was that it was too drawn out. The story would have been a 5 star if it had not taken so many chapters to complete. Have you enjoyed reading her books. Would recommend them to others.

This is a couple who will steal your heart. Calhoun writes about children in need so well, and from the beginning when readers see Hunter and Olivia as children, they are rooting for these two to find their happy ending. The romantic reuniting is sweet and emotional. Another plus to the story was a great subplot with an older couple romance, something that shows up far too infrequently in books these days. The relationship between Olivia and her friends is also intriguing. Calhoun plants many mysteries in the story so that as a reader, I can't wait for the next one to see how the friendships will all work out! Well done!

Another great series by Belle Calhoun. Olivia quickly became a favorite character in book one of the series, so I was glad to see her story in book 2. Hunter is a hero to fall in love with, and Olivia the woman you want to have as your best friend. A Moment in the Moonlight, is a great book to curl up with a cup of tea and get lost for a few hours.

I enjoyed this book. I loved all the little details at just the right places. Its a story that ends happily, but all emotions are present throughout.
