Dick Francis: Steeplechase Jockey

Synopsis

This highly illustrated book charts the progress of Dick Francis's career as a leading national hunt jockey. It describes his childhood and the moments which influenced his riding career; following him through the war and his return afterwards to become a professional jockey, riding for some of the most influential owners in the country, and winning some of the most important races.

Customer Reviews

I expected more writing and less pictures but it's still a great book and shows what an accomplished horseman Dick Francis was. (A good writer, too.)
