Teriel (The Warrior's Stone) The Lightstone Chronicles, Book 1

Synopsis

Book 1 of the Lightstone Chronicles For a thousand years, the Acan Empire has ruthlessly dominated the land, its black power assured by cruel sorcerers and merciless assassins. In the midst of the darkness, a glimmer of hope is about to appear in the most unlikely of places: deep in the caves under Mount Horgathe. Destiny has chosen a 15-year-old slave, born and raised in a mine, to fight for his people's freedom. The young man's name is Teriel.

Customer Reviews

This is a story of a boy whose ancestors were once great people until an evil country invaded them and made them slaves forced to mine and live in a mountain. Soon a adventure is thrust upon a young boy with magical abilities and only he can save his people through the the warrior stone he possesses. In this book you will find: -magic (very poorly done) -love (beyond pathetic): do not think the author is talented in the buildup of a romance. -magical lizards -an assassin (barely in the story) -story takes place in three areas of the kingdom -traveling -multiple characters with their own chapters/views Not in the book that you might like to know: -no sex -no drugs -little detail when it comes to blood or wounds -no alcohol This book has potential but I feel the author fails in his execution. I absolutely hated the crappy romance he tried for. Other than that it was not a bad book, just lacking many things. I never felt connected to the characters either which bugs me.

The story and characters were very enjoyable. The writing was quite good with a few errors but not too many. The story was somewhat predictable and the magic simplistic but I don't think that interfered with the overall enjoyment of the book. I do recommend this book to other readers and I personally look forward to the next one in the series.

Exciting, well written adventure with lots of memorable characters. I am looking forward to future adventures in this exciting world.

I thoroughly enjoyed it! A new way to bring fantasy together in a world well tread. Thank you for a new story!

Great story. Not much of a fantasy reader, but I really loved this book. Will definitely read book 2.
