Customer Reviews

I wanted to like this book. The description sounded really good! But the story just made no sense. It was way too rushed. Maddie has Lee's child. Doesn't tell him. He comes to town for his sisters wedding. Not even two days after being there, and not even seeing the child he confronts Maddie about it being his. So what, he knew all along she had a daughter? That she was 4 years old, and that it was his? And he did nothing about it all these years? Then after a 5 second conversation, boom they're together. Then it's the end. Now scene of him meeting his daughter, or even what they do after the wedding. It's just done. I had high hopes for this one, and was left disappointed.

This one of my first romantic book that talks about a relationship under the context of sports. the story is so cute and very intriguing. I just felt there was something missing to make their love story more enjoying and interesting. But then, I was truly entertained by their love story. Love really happened in any ways.

This book was great. The story was well written - I was laughing and crying throughout. And I love the characters, they were developed and so endearing. I definitely recommend this book and I'm looking forward to more from this author.

This book is very intriguing in my part at fist because i never thought that it will out-stand typical erotica book that i compile one thing that is amazing about this book is that its plot story is very unique not just the typical one I ill not spoil anything but reading this one will never makes you regret!

I enjoyed this book. It was well written and kept me wanting to find out what happens. I think if you are into Roman stuff like I do then you must surely grab this book. I look forward to reading the rest of the Elle Snow's stories.

The Cover is good. The stories are awesome. I can't get enough of Elle Snow. I will surely get her other books. The stories are different from each but you can see that the books were professionally written by an awesome Author. Keep it up!

Very interesting and tremulous story about two lonely people. I really liked the book and I read it very quickly. Every page I lived together like heroes. I worried for them as for myself. Thanks to the author for such an interesting love story. I recommend this book.

Crap. Crap. Crap. Avoid. Don't bother w the dollar. It's not worth it. No pot, no depth, no characters you can actually feel for. The story was something a beginner in high school would make - story wise.
