Customer Reviews

My 3rd-grader loves all things Magic Treehouse. He's in Spanish-immersion at school and brought home one of the books in Spanish one day. The translation is great and really helps him in learning the language because he enjoys the stories so much.

This book is a multicultural book. This book was written by Mary Pope Osborne. This book wasn't good, but it wasn't bad. It was ok. It takes place in Greece. In the book there were 2 main characters. Their names are Jack and Anne. In the book the two characters went on an adventure. Also, Jack and Anne went on the Magic Tree House. The problem in the book is that they got lost and they were looking for the tree house. The theme of the book was loyalty. I liked that everyone was friends in the book. I didn't like that they got lost and they couldn't find the tree house.

As described.

Bought for my granddaughter = she loves TreeHouse books and is learning Spanish.
