The Falcon

Synopsis

Like many crime fighters from the radio era, the Falcon first came to life in pulp fiction. Michael introduced the character in the 1940 short story "Guy Falcon," which became an RKO film the following year. The success of the subsequent film series paved the way for a Falcon radio series, which delighted audiences for more than a decade. Enjoy 20 radio adventures starring Les Damon as Michael Waring (a.k.a. the Falcon), the suave detective who was "always ready with a hand for oppressed men and an eye for repressed women." Contents: The Case of the Careless Client; The Case of the Double Nephews; The Case of the Double Exposure; The Case of the Rich Racketeer; The Case of the Widow's Gorilla; The Case of the Puzzling Pinup; The Case of the Stooge's Errand; The Case of the Harried Husband; The Case of the Raw Deal; The Case of the Baby's Brother; The Case of the Neighbor's Nightmare; The Case of the Superfluous Murder; The Case of the Missing Patient; The Case of the Natural Seven; The Case of the Grand Gamble; The Case of the Murdering Missus; The Case of the Handy Helpmate; The Case of the Happy Hoodlum; The Case of the King of Hearts; The Case of the Falling Star.
