A great read! I've always toyed with the idea of RV living, and this book helps complete that vision with good tips and tricks to the lifestyle. very impressive tool! I found this book as I was planning for our first full summer camping and traveling with a travel trailer. It was a very helpful in planning and determining the lifestyle we will now have as a retired couple. i recommend this book.

This book is a complete and comprehensive book about the RV. It has all the information about choosing the RV, RV models, and the complete technical guide. I have also got useful traveling tips and instructions described by the author. The writer has also added the maintenance tips for your RV which is so much important to know. The author has done a great job to write this book. I highly recommend this book to all RV lovers.

Get glued to the RV Living which looks to be cheaper especially when traveling has caught my attention and reading this book has unveiled to me seem of the important aspects I used to take for granted. The book has detailed the reasons for choosing this kind of living means and the ways of keeping it clean and update with the good interior system.

This book have detail about perfect use of RV you can live any where in van and enjoy luxurious life. The book is well written and easy to understand. I love to spend my life in RV that's why i get this book thanks.

Always dreamed of an RV life, well not exactly spending my entire life in there, but just taking a week off of everything to sit back, relax and enjoy the nature and the road. Really interesting book that explores this topic and I liked the depth to which it goes which clearly shows that every aspect of boondocking has been carefully studied.

I consider off-grid living romantic. It teaches to overcome any kind of difficulties. This book covers the main issues concerning RV living. It provides really precious tips.They are practical and seem to be based on someone's experience. This book also helps to get ready psychologically for RV living. It's a worthy guide especially for those who want to feel prepared. Recommended.

I have not yet decided on this way of life, but I really like the idea of turning his life into a continuous journey! In my opinion, this book has all the necessary information for beginners and more. I recommend.helped us with choosing the right vehicle for our personal purposes. It also covers safety, preparation, location and earning an income whilst on the road, all the things to consider when deciding to live in a motor home.
