Star Ancestors: Extraterrestrial Contact In The Native American Tradition

Synopsis

Explores the long-standing contact between American Indian tribes and extraterrestrial visitors through interviews with the tribes' spiritual leaders • Shares the wisdom and ET experiences of Dawnland founder Dana Pictou, Mayan daykeeper Hunbatz Men, Choctaw wisdomkeeper Sequoyah Trueblood, and Creek healer and artist Shona Bear Clark • Includes color photos of ET-inspired work by prominent Indian artists as well as traditional Indian art depicting contact with the Sky Elders • As humanity stands at the crossroads between the Fifth and the Sixth Worlds, American Indian wisdomkeepers have recognized signs that they must now speak their closely held knowledge about extraterrestrial contact, their original instructions from the Sky Elders. These ET relationships have existed since the beginning of time. They have been depicted on ancient rocks and hides, embedded in creation stories, choreographed in sacred dances, beaded on wampum belts, and continued to this day through rituals and the tobacco blessing. They show that with the vital support of our Star Ancestors, we can bring our planet back into balance with natural laws. Exploring the unifying Sky Elder theme found in virtually every Indian culture, Nancy Red Star shares her profound interviews with wisdomkeepers from several Native traditions, including Mayan elder and daykeeper Hunbatz Men, Stargate International CEO and UFO researcher Cecilia Dean, and Choctaw medicine man Sequoyah Trueblood, and offers their teachings on taking our rightful place among the peoples of the universe. Laying out a path for rebuilding our world, the Sky Elders' original instructions initiate us into the possibility of a coming time of peace. Inviting all peoples to realize their Star ancestry, the women and men of proud lineage and inspiring wisdom who share their experiences here offer us a survival plan for walking into the next world.

Are you open to change? Willing to explore new dimensions... then hold onto your hat's ladies and gents because this is going to be one bumpy and wild ride. It is hard to believe this one small volume can be so full of startling new perspectives ranging from alien visitations, Yes Virginia, folks from other worlds, to telepathic mothers talking to their daughters without speaking and being chided by their grandmothers for doing so, healings that doctors can't explain, to tribal wars with aliens from their recorded history. That is just the tip of the iceberg offered in these 11 "no holds barred" personal writings of experiences by Native American people revealing true life stories and ancient tribal historical knowledge long kept hidden from non-native peoples. Interviews, personal experiences from indigenous peoples of North America, Mexico, and South America... now known as Mesoamerica, make up the explosive information contained within. These stories are accompanied by photographs of artifacts and contemporary artwork/handicrafts that illustrate foundational beliefs, tribal historical origins and the presence of alien visitations. Nancy Red Star, the author of "Star Ancestors", is one interesting woman; a daughter of the Cherokee, former professor at Bard College in Native American Studies, and a frequent guest on the History Channel's show, "Ancient Aliens". Nancy's publisher, Bear and Company, spared no expense with the quality of paper used to highlight the beautiful Native American artwork and various color photographs that fill this book with the rarest kind of beauty... Truth spoken bravely. As you read this you will begin to see how we have been brainwashed into believing Native people's were savages.
