Customer Reviews

I love solving crosswords. I am not a brilliant solver, so I lean toward the easier ones. What I like about those edited by Will Shortz is that he makes sure there is always a good theme going through the puzzle. Often it's a kind of humor and I really enjoy solving them. And crossword puzzles help keep your mind young....if you go ahead and figure them out, that is!

I enjoy these crossword puzzles and the Tuesday puzzles are fine for me. Some have criticized the puzzles for containing multiple-word answers, phrases, and answers other than just one word. This is what makes it challenging. This is what makes it fun. I love the puns and the multiple-word answers since they make me work a bit harder. The only thing I'm not excited about is that sometimes I take this to waiting rooms or such like to work on and the word 'EASY' is often prominently displayed on the cover. I realize that these are not Saturday or Sunday puzzles but does the word 'EASY' have to be printed so large on the cover? Just joking.

These are terrific for my skill level. The Monday Omnibus was too easy but, these make me really think and are fun to solve. Not sure I am ready for Wednesday yet. The Tuesday puzzles use words that most solvers are familiar with. I dislike crosswords that use words I have never heard of before!

Somewhat challenging but not as challenging as I expected. Usually the Wednesday New York Timies is about as far as I can go bc of the level of difficulty. This challenges, but i rarely have to look up anything. But it's still good to keep the memory sharp. Arrived in good time. Will order New York times in the future.

I am the crossword puzzle addict in my family. I usually have a puzzle book when I travel. Although Tuesday is a bit on the easy side, it is fun to do a New York Times puzzle that I can actually completely solve.

I really should give this a 4 because I'm bothered that I had to look in the back for some answers. :-)
But I guess that until you can do them without having to look in the back, it's the perfect level. A little more challenging than Monday, just enough but not too much.

I just finished the Monday Crossword Omnibus and really liked it. The Tuesday version seems to be a hodge podge of odd puzzles j(like they didn't make the grade, kind of puzzles) jumbled together in this volume. The quality of the book if great. The shipper is great. Thanks.

I graduated from Monday to this fine large print book. Am working my way, hopefully, to Wednesday. Love having the answers in the back and not having to wait 24 hours to get unstuck.
