Customer Reviews

The plot is great. The characters? Beast, the big purple sexy alien, was great. Amelia could've been a little stronger and a little less clueless. Here's why I say this:Princess Ameia has just celebrated her 18th birthday and her betrothal was to be announced the next day. Due to her status, she was never allowed to go anywhere by herself, especially off world. Her stepbrothers, Vrillum, talks her into a quick run in a spacecraft before she is settled down. Slavers show up and Vrillum, shoves in the escape pod and releases it. She lands on an unknown planet. As she steps out of the pod after landing she sees this big purple naked guy running at her at full speed. She rushes back inside. For some unknown reason, he pushes the pod til it rolls into a secluded area surrounded by a forest. She's afraid of him, understandable. When she's running low on water she decides to venture out to find water.. She finds it and the purple hunk finds her. She takes off back to the pod but she forgot her jug of water. She has been crying regarding her situation and wondering if she'll be rescued but now she starts the heavy doses of "poor me", "I'm a princess, I don't know how to take care of myself". She's still scared to death of the alien, thinking he wants to eat her but he only followed her. The next day she sees her jug of water left in front of the doorway. She retrieves it and sees the alien by the tree lines. After that, he leaves her meat and fruit. Now why would he want to kill her if he's trying to help her. She comes up with all kinds of reasons in her head about what his motives are because she is dead set on the idea that he wants to eat her. He has meat he shares with her, he doesn't need to eat her. She watches his routine to see when she can leave the pod again.
