A Thread So Thin (Cobbled Court Quilts)

Synopsis

New York Times bestselling author Marie Bostwick crafts a timeless tale of friendship, love, and the choices we must make in their name. . . While New Bern, Connecticut, lies under a blanket of snow, the Cobbled Court Quilt Shop remains a cozy haven for its owner, Evelyn Dixon, and her friends. Evelyn relishes winter's slower pace--besides, internet sales are hopping, thanks to her son Garrett's efforts. In addition to helping out at the shop, Garrett has also been patiently waiting for his girlfriend, Liza, to finish art school in New York City. But as much as Evelyn loves Liza, she wonders if it's a good idea for her son to be so serious, so soon, with a young woman who's just getting ready to spread her wings. . . Liza's wondering the same thing--especially after Garrett rolls out the red carpet for a super-romantic New Year's Eve--complete with marriage proposal. Garrett's the closest thing to perfect she's ever known, but what about her own imperfections? The only happy marriage Liza's ever seen is her Aunt Abigail's, and it took her decades to tie the knot. Soon, Liza is not only struggling with her own fears, but with the mixed reactions of her friends and family. And when she finds herself torn between a rare career opportunity and her love for Garrett, Liza must grasp at the thinnest of threads--and pray it holds. . .

Customer Reviews

This is one of my favorite cozy reads of the year. Every time I pick up Marie's books, I know that I am in for a relaxing afternoon (which I desperately need sometimes!) and going into her Cobbled Court world ... nothing like coming home after working so hard all day and finding a cup of hot tea waiting for you. It's just the perfect book for crazy days. This is book three in the Cobbled Court series and this one focuses on Evelyn and Liza, who is also dating Garrett, Evelyn's son. Liza is in her senior year of college and is on the fast track to be a rising star in the art world. Her professor has taken a shine to her and made an offer that she can't refuse. Then there's Garrett with a surprise of his own. Liza had to make a choice between her future career and Garrett. In the meantime, Evelyn is dealing with taking care of her mother after finding out she had a serious fall back at home. Not only that, Evelyn is also finding more time with Charlie and his romantic interest has deepened. When Liza and Garrett both announced their engagement, Evelyn had her doubts as to whether or not Liza is ready for marriage. Liza does too especially after the only happy marriage she has seen is her Aunt Abigail's marriage and she had waited a long time for her happy story. Torn between her desires for a career and to be with Garrett, Liza had to do some serious thinking and fast. If this is your first look at the Cobbled Court series, please do not hesitate to pick it up. Marie always give a bit of background history in her books so you won't feel like you're totally missing out on something that was in the previous books, though her other two books are just as wonderful. I guarantee that you will want to read them too after reading this one.
