This is a fun, visual and quickstart guide to American Mah Jongg. If you want to learn or need to review an aspect of the game you can turn to this book. You will find it very enjoyable to read. The illustrations and colorful layout on each page make every key points easy to comprehend and remember. The table of contents is clear and points you to the topic of interest. The author breaks down the essential parts of the game and presents them in a simple way to learn. If you found yourself confused by other sources or explanations give this book a try. Even if you are already familiar with the game, consider this book as a resource to direct beginners so that they also can learn this wonderful game.

What a fun way to learn how to play the crazy game! I have to have this on hand for new friends who want to learn and to refresh my memory when one of the special situations occurs. I totally recommend for beginners and those who want to add friends to their group. Pass it around for giggles too!

Refreshing and a surprise to find a quick and easy guide that actually is just that. I've tried other beginner's guides and gave up.....now I'm well on my way to picking up Mah Jongg. I highly recommend this book if you are a beginner. Also, a friend who has been playing for a bit thinks it's a great reference when she needs it. Added bonus, the whimsical illustrations are a kick.

Learning to play Mah Jongg can seem like a foreign language. This book is not only fun, but clearly explains the key points to get a person understanding and playing the game quickly. I really enjoyed the original art and diagrams that are used to get a player up and running, and made it a real page turner.
