Customer Reviews

Since the Token Series where Tamara Rose Blodgett wrote under her other famous author name Marata Eros, have I practically torn through a series so fast and then practically counted down the days until my pre-order Vampire (Alpha Claim 6) hit the library of my Kindle so that I could devour it as well, and devour it I did. If the Vampire Alpha Claim Series as a whole could be summed up easily into words then my job would be easier than you think but trying to keep my thought and words PG rated to a certain extent is very difficult when it comes to the lives of Narah (love that name!), Aeslin and Matthews. In Vampire (Alpha Claim 6) things only get much more heated and graphic so if you have a burn to find out where things go then Co time with them on their journey because not only do things become so hot it's almost stifling but action packed with men who have some incredible muscles, let's just say anticipation is everything and every moment is worth it! Narah begins her journey at the start of the book in very dire circumstances, having been fed to the one person who wants to use her for his own sick perverse pleasures, Magistrate Oren. We all know from the previous books just what a sicko he is and just what he wants from Narah but now he has his chance his fantasies have become a reality, a heady rush that will either have him bathed in her blood or allowing him to make a mistake, Narah is strong and he knows it-dominance and control through violence are his weapon against her. But as we know she has more than one trick up her sleeve, that is if they make it in time.....Murphy maybe her ace in the hole because in instinct in order to save her friend, before her capture Narah turned him into a Vampire.
