Infinite Magic (Dragon's Gift: The Huntress Book 5)

Synopsis

Things aren't looking great for Cass Clereaux. For one, her greatest fear has come true. She's stuck in the Prison for Magical Miscreants while her nemesis, Victor Orridor, is out in the world, putting the last pieces of his plan into place. He's wreaking havoc, all while she's stuck in a stone box, awaiting likely execution. Fortunately, Cass has just discovered that she's the most powerful Magica in the world. She may have no control over her massive new power, but that won't stop her from using it to break out of the world's strongest supernatural prison. As for how she's going to stop Victor when she gets out? She has no idea. To have any hope at success, Cass will have to learn to control her magic and figure out exactly what he's trying to accomplish. She's going to need all the help she can get if she wants to survive, much less save the world. Luckily for her, she's got Aidan Merrick and her sisters at her back, along with her allies in the League of FireSouls. Dragon's Gift series features kick butt heroines, a griffin hero, and otherworldly adventure. Reviewers have compared it to Shannon Mayer and Illona Andrews.

Customer Reviews

Timing, it seems, can be on Cass's side sometimes: as her plans to escape work themselves into an unmanageable corner, her defacto family and friends appear to offer the much needed assistance required to break free from The Prison for Magical Miscreants. Given the devotion between this small group of tight-knit friends, sisters, lovers, it was never really a question of if, but when! Lucky for the sisters, the corruption seeking to destroy the Order from within it's own ranks allowed the protection necessary to hide in plain sight. Anonymity is maintained; Victor and the Bulldog sought to keep the knowledge of Cass and her sisters' importance from the Order, and thus the same Order failed to learn what would have doomed the girls. As the latest dust settles Cass is given the time and chance to once again renew her addiction and obsession with Cornish pasties. Prison food leaving its mark, Cass and her fellow escapee Emile, another FireSoul befriended during her prison time, renew their energy on gourmet from Potions & Pastilles. As is oftentimes the case, the simple things in life are never more appreciated than when things have been bare. Cass's ability to be happy with the smallest accomplishments and the conflict she acknowledges by putting herself in the shoes of her adversaries are two of the greatest traits which endear her to readers. Sitting in her lounge going over what is known, its here we're transported back to one of the earliest missions involving the rescue of Amara (the Heart of Glencarrough) for the Alpha Council, and a little window of potentiality opens into the goals of Victor's. The enormity of past events of this saga is revealed in the realisation that it was just one month ago.
