Who's The Baby?

A Christmas Play by Sam Lenton

Synopsis

It's census time in Judea. Everyone, and that means everyone, must return to their home town to complete and file a form. This is for the Romans so there must be a tax implication in it somewhere... This, then, is the story of a couple unlike any other. Mary and Joseph are travelling from Nazareth where they live to Joseph's home town Bethlehem to file their census forms. Oh, and just to make the journey that little bit harder, Mary is very, very pregnant! Who's the baby? Find out the incredible truth and meet a set of Nativity characters unlike any you have seen before! Who's the baby? is a contemporary comedy play by Sam Lenton, written in 2009 and performed in December 2010 and 2011. A DVD of the debut performance is available from www.samlenton.co.uk, where you can also purchase a paper copy of the script, as well as a set of director's notes, to help you put on your own performance. If you enjoy reading this play, why not check out 'It was the tree's fault: A collection of monologues based on Biblical characters and events'? Sam Lenton is also the author of the novel 'Accidental Crime'.
