Customer Reviews

I prefer the Jeppesen test prep books over these ASA ones. Jeppesen put the correct answer choice right next to the questions (you can then use the provided bookmark to cover them and just slide it down to reveal the answers.. The ASA books put the answers at the bottom and it adds considerable time to studying to look down and find the question number and answer for every single question. Also I really don't like the way the book is categorized. You have to jump around the book to find the questions that pertain to you

I bought this to take my FOI and FIA tests. I received a 100% on my FOI and a 92 on my FIA. The explanations in the chapter forwards are great for a basic understanding, but requires a little more information in order to explain all covered chapter questions (paragraphs cover an estimated 60-70% of all questions). ASA gives an explanation do both formulas to use (with examples) and how to use their CX2 computer ( just like all ASA prep programs). Be careful of their online test corrections, some of the FOI corrections are NOT correct based on both actual test experience and what the FAA Flight Instructor Handbook stated. Overall it's better in quality than Jeppesen study prep, so 4 out of 5 is definitely warranted.

Considering the FAA doesn't release its question bank anymore, this was fairly comprehensive, at least within reason with what information was available. Know the information and principles, don't memorize questions only!

Not a bad test prep book although the test I took had a sizeable number of questions on it not covered by the book. I passed on the first try.
